

REUTERS THE FACTS

Reuters is the world's largest international multimedia news provider.

Founded over 165 years ago, Reuters provides society with the news it needs to be free, prosperous and informed. Each day 2,500 journalists in nearly 200 locations around the globe deliver unparalleled international and national news coverage in 16 languages with speed, impartiality and insight. Reuters stays true to the letter and spirit of the Thomson Reuters Trust Principles, valuing independence, integrity and freedom from bias.

GLOBAL REACH

Reuters news is read and seen by more than 1 billion people worldwide every day, including:

- 750+ TV broadcasters in 115 countries.
- 1,000+ publishing clients, including 8 of the top 10 newspapers globally.
- 35 million unique monthly visitors to Reuters.com.
- 3.5 million monthly active users of Reuters TV.
- Hundreds of thousands of professionals using Thomson

UNMATCHED COVERAGE

Each year, Reuters delivers:

- 2+ million unique news stories.
- 1.4+ million news alerts.
- 730,000+ pictures and images.
- 110,000+ video stories.
- 4,600+ expert views.
- Nearly 100 investigative reports.

EXCLUSIVE ACCESS

Reuters has access to top newsmakers around the globe. Recent highlights:

- Shinzo Abe - Prime Minister, Japan
- Tayyip Erdogan - President, Turkey
- Carrie Lam - Chief Executive, Hong Kong
- David McKay - CEO, Royal Bank of Canada
- Satya Nadella - CEO, Microsoft
- Mohammed bin Salman - Crown Prince, Saudi Arabia
- Donald Trump - President, U.S.
- Bruno Tshibala - Prime Minister, Democratic Republic of Congo
- Mark Zuckerberg - CEO, Facebook

INDUSTRY RECOGNIZED

Since 2017, Reuters has received over 175 journalism award recognitions, including two Pulitzer Prize winners and two finalists, the PEN/Barbey Freedom to Write Award, 12 Society of Publishers in Asia Awards recognitions, five Overseas Press Club Awards recognitions, five World Press Photo Awards and a Royal Television Society Award.

LONG HISTORY OF BREAKING NEWS

Reuters has been the first to capture some of the most historic moments of our time.

1850	1865	1912	1956	1989	2003	2012	2013	2016	2017
Paul Julius Reuter uses pigeons to fly stock market prices between Brussels and Aachen	First in London to get the news that President Lincoln was shot	The Titanic hits an iceberg	Khrushchev denounces Stalin	Fall of the Berlin Wall	Saddam Hussein is captured	Facebook files $5 billion IPO	Bank probes find manipulation in Singapore's offshore FX market	Yahoo secretly scanned customer emails for U.S. intelligence	U.S. tech companies met Russian demands for product security secrets