

Books on Westlaw IE

Books on Westlaw IE

Excellent analytical commentary, including 30 Round Hall titles, links to cases, legislation, and court rules. Westlaw® IE enhances and complements the commentary, giving you better, faster, and more efficient research capabilities.

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
Administrative Law in Ireland, 4th Edition	Administrative Law	This new edition of Administrative Law in Ireland provides practitioners, public servants, and students with a comprehensive and definitive analysis of the creation, structure, and legal regulation of the contemporary Irish administrative state.  Publication date: December 2019	Gerard Hogan, David Gwynn Morgan, and Paul Daly
Anti-Money Laundering: Risks, Compliance and Governance, 1st Edition	Criminal Law	This new work examines compliance and legal issues arising from the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010. This legislation applies the Third Money Laundering Directive which sets a common standard throughout the EU.  Publication date: November 2013	Michael Ashe, QC, and Paula Reid
Arbitration Law, 2nd Edition	Dispute Resolution	The new edition of Arbitration Law provides practitioners with a comprehensive and definitive analysis of Irish Arbitration Law and procedure after the coming into force of the Arbitration Act 2010 and the UNCITRAL Model Law.  Publication date: September 2014	Arran Dowling-Hussey and Derek Dunne
Banking Law, 4th Edition	Banking and Financial Services Law	The fourth edition of Banking Law provides practitioners with a comprehensive analysis of all aspects of Irish law relating to banks and banking services. There is an extensive analysis of the new regulatory structures under the EU Capital Requirements regime, and the new edition discusses important Irish developments in terms of statute and case law.  Publication date: December 2018	John Breslin and Elizabeth Corcoran
Civil Procedure in the Circuit Court, 3rd Edition	Litigation	Amid the hustle and bustle of the Circuit Court you need to make sure you know the correct practice and procedure at any given moment. This brand-new edition of Civil Procedure in the Circuit Court provides the practitioner with a comprehensive and definitive analysis of civil practice and procedure in this Court. It is an extensive commentary of the Circuit Court Rules, referring to reported and unreported decisions of the courts, legislation, and practice directions.  Publication date: September 2018	Karl Dowling and Susan Martin

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
Civil Procedure in the District Court, 2nd Ed. 2014	Litigation	This is an invaluable reference guide to the expansive District Court (Civil Procedure) Rules 2014 introduced in February 2014 which brought in sweeping changes to practice and procedure in the District Court. The new edition provides the practitioner with up to date comprehensive and definitive analysis of civil practice and procedure in District Court to take account of the sweeping changes introduced by the new District Court (Civil Procedure) Rules 2014. It is an extensive commentary of the District Court Rules, referring to reported and unreported decisions of the courts, legislation, and practice directions. Publication date: December 2014	Karl Dowling and Suzanne Mullally
Consumer Law: Rights and Regulation, 1st Edition	Consumer Law	Consumer Law: Rights and Regulation provides readers with a comprehensive and definitive analysis of contemporary Irish consumer law, within its European context. The book addresses consumer law issues from a dual perspective by examining both consumers' rights and suppliers' regulatory obligations. Publication date: December 2014	Mary Donnelly and Fidelma White
Contract Law in Ireland, 8th Edition	Contract Law	Contract Law in Ireland provides students with a succinct analysis of Irish contract law. The eighth edition examines recent case law from Ireland, England and Wales, Australia and New Zealand which continues to develop the law on promissory estoppel in a contractual setting. It includes several important and landmark legislative changes that have taken place since the previous edition in 2011, and compensation for non-pecuniary loss, contributory negligence, and penalty/liquidated damages clauses. Publication date: September 2016	Robert Clark
Damages, 1st Edition	The Law of Damages	This new title covers the issue of damages in Irish law in extensive detail. The detailed analysis and wide range of sources cited in the text will make this an accessible yet extremely useful resource. It provides essential assistance to counsel and solicitors in providing advice on quantum, and in advising clients on the likely success of a particular action. Damages aims to provide practitioners with a thorough reference to approaching and quantifying the issue of quantum. As well as providing commentary on general principles of approaching quantum such as contributory negligence, the book also deals with substantive areas, including: Personal injuries; Contract; Statutory damages; Misfeasance; Bullying and Harassment; Psychiatric Injury; Defamation; and Economic torts. Publication date: July 2015	Tadhg Dorgan and Peter McKenna

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
Delany and McGrath on Civil Procedure, 4th Edition	Litigation	The fourth edition of Delany and McGrath on Civil Procedure provides comprehensive analysis of the main areas of civil practice and procedure in the Superior Courts. It contains in depth commentary on the key aspects of procedure in the High Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court and refers to relevant case law, primary and secondary legislation, and practice directions.  Publication date: March 2018	Hilary Delany, Declan McGrath, and Emily Egan McGrath
Discovery and Disclosure, 3rd Edition	Litigation	The latest edition of our leading text Discovery and Disclosure is now available from Round Hall. It is the only up-to-date Irish text dedicated to discovery and disclosure, and the only text covering disclosure in both criminal and civil matters. It brings the former main work fully up-to-date and deals with the developments in litigation since the publication of the 2nd edition in 2013, and its supplement in 2015.  Publication date: June 2019	William Abrahamson, James Dwyer, and Andrew Fitzpatrick
Drunken Driving, 1st Edition	Criminal Law	The book is a comprehensive update on the area of drunken driving and related intoxicant offences. It provides detailed analysis of recent significant cases and legislative updates. It also provides a user-friendly guide for court and for reference.  Publication date: September 2015	David Staunton
Easements, 3rd Edition	Easements	The third edition of Easements provides a comprehensive and definitive analysis of this notoriously complex area of law. The book includes new case law and legislation since the previous edition and the scheme of the book has been completely revised and reordered.  Publication date: December 2015	Peter Bland
Employment Equality Law, 1st Edition	Employment Law	Employment Equality Law covers all aspects of employment equality law covered by the Employment Equality Acts 1998-2011. It covers Irish law, as well as EU law and decisions of the European Court of Justice, and on occasion, important precedents from other jurisdictions. It provides a detailed consideration of the Employment Equality Acts 1998-2011 and the area of non-discrimination law in Irish and EU law. It covers Irish law, as well as EU law (including the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union) and decisions of the Court of Justice of the European Union, and important precedents from other jurisdictions. It presents the sometimes-complex concepts and procedures in employment equality in a practical and accessible manner as well as giving a deeper perspective.  Publication date: December 2012	Marguerite Bolger, Claire Bruton, and Cliona Kimber

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
Employment Law, 1st Edition and 1st Supplement	Employment Law	This major new text covers the broad sweep of employment law including key decisions of Irish adjudicating bodies such as the Labour Court, the Employment Appeals Tribunal and the Equality Tribunal, as well as the High and Supreme Courts of Ireland and the Court of Justice of the European Communities. In a clear and engaging manner, Meenan describes employment law in the Republic of Ireland, covering all statutory aspects of the employer/employee relationship. Publication date: May 2014	Frances Meenan
Enforcement of Judgments, 2nd Edition	Litigation	This comprehensive and practical guide covers practice and procedure relating to enforcement in the Superior Courts, the Circuit Court, and the District Court. It is a comprehensive, readable, practical guide for practitioners involved in providing advice in relation to enforcement. The new edition discusses important recent judgments including ACC Loan Management Ltd v Rickard [2017] IECA 245, [2018] IESCDT 36 and AIB v McGuigan [2018] IEHC 67 and AIB plc v O'Reilly [2015] IECA 209. It discusses legislative developments relating to enforcement including the Companies Act 2014, the Bankruptcy (Amendment) Act 2015 and the Mediation Act 2017, and changes to rates of Courts Act and late payment interest through S.I. Nos 281 and 684 of 2016. Publication date: June 2019	Sam Collins
Evidence, 2nd Edition	Evidence	McGrath on Evidence, by Declan McGrath and Emily Egan McGrath, is the third edition of the definitive book on evidence and is a must-have for the serious practitioner. Part of the Round Hall Brehon Library, McGrath on Evidence is unique in its breadth of coverage, scope, and detail. This essential practitioner work concentrates on Irish case law in relation to the Law of Evidence but also discusses relevant jurisprudence from other jurisdictions. It deals not only with the law of evidence as it applies to criminal trials, but also the rules applicable in civil trials. Publication date: December 2020	Declan McGrath
Family Law, 1st Edition	Family Law	Family Law provides comprehensive coverage of all aspects of family law. It also addresses concept of modern family law issues, including rights of same-sex couples, private ordering on marital breakdown, the Europeanisation of family law, and the increasing role of mediation and collaboration in family law disputes. Publication date: December 2013	Louise Crowley

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
Freedom of Information Law, 3rd Edition	Data Protection	The new edition of Freedom of Information Law provides the user with a clear and comprehensive analysis of the Freedom of Information Act 2014, referring to decisions of the Information Commissioner and of the courts as well as to overseas FOI decisions. It also covers the separate legislative regime for access to environmental information. Publication date: May 2015	Maeve McDonagh
Injunctions: Law and Practice, 2nd Edition	Legal Practice and Procedure	The new edition of Injunctions Law and Practice provides a comprehensive overview of both the law and practice in relation to injunctions. Written and laid out in a way that helps both the busy practitioner looking for a quick answer, but also anyone wishing to gain a more in-depth understanding of the law and practice in this area, the third edition analyses all the major judgments delivered by the Superior Courts since the second edition and identifies material changes to both the Rules of the Superior Courts and practice in the Courts. Publication date: September 2020	Brendan Kirwan
Insurance Law, 4th Edition	Insurance Law	Buckley on Insurance Law is the authoritative work about Irish Insurance law and is the reference of choice for all practitioners. The book is now the acknowledged reference on matters of Insurance law in Ireland and is cited authoritatively in the courts and in arbitrations. The 4th edition expands treatment of all areas to provide updates, analysis, and commentary on legal developments in selected areas of insurance. Publication date: December 2016	Austin J. Buckley
International Law, 1st Edition	International Law	This is the first comprehensive study of international law in the Irish legal system, examining both the general principles governing the implementation of this increasingly important source of law in Ireland as well as its effects on specific areas of practice. It situates the subject in the context of the European Union legal system, through which many of Ireland's international obligations now take effect. Insurance Law is now the acknowledged reference on matters of Insurance law in Ireland and is cited authoritatively in the courts and in arbitrations. The third edition revises and updates the content generally on the main classes of non-life insurance, in the light of recent legal developments. Publication date: November 2014	David Fennelly

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
Limitation of Actions, 2nd Edition	Legal Practice and Procedure	Limitation of Actions contains a complete examination of the time limits for commencing an action along with invaluable detail on how time runs. The new edition provides the practitioner with a comprehensive and definitive analysis of the time limits for civil proceedings and the limitation rules governing causes of action. The first edition of the textbook has been referred to in numerous decisions of the High Court and Supreme Court and it is the established practitioner text for this area of law. Publication date: June 2016	Martin Canny
Procurement Law in Ireland, 1st Edition	Procurement Law	This new text provides an overview of the principles of public procurement, thresholds and exclusions for public contracts, notification and procurement procedures, framework agreements and dynamic purchasing, and remedies and redress. It is an extensive evaluation of the substantive and procedural provisions applying to public procurement in this jurisdiction. This is a key text for legal practitioners and those working in public procurement in local authorities, Government departments, utilities, and potential contractors and bidders in the private sector. Publication date: July 2018	David Browne and Patrick McGovern
Sentencing Law and Practice, 3rd Edition	Criminal Law	The new edition of Sentencing Law and Practice provides judges and practitioners with a comprehensive and reliable analysis of Irish sentencing law, with particular emphasis on general principles, it also analyses all recent legislation and its implications for sentencing practice. Extensive use is made of comparative law for illustrative purposes. Publication date: June 2016	Thomas O'Malley
Sexual Offences, 2nd Edition	Criminal Law	The second edition of Thomas O'Malley's Sexual Offences has been completely rewritten and updated to consider the recent legislation and case law in this highly important area of our criminal law. Since the first edition was published in 1996, there have been many significant developments including laws on child trafficking and pornography and the revised law on sexual offences against children introduced in the wake of the Supreme Court decision in C.C v Ireland (2006). There has also been a great deal of case law on the prosecution, trial, and punishment of sexual offences. Publication date: December 2013	Thomas O'Malley

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
The Commercial Court, 2nd Edition	Litigation	The Commercial Court, 2nd edition provides you with a practical and unique guide to the rules and procedures in the Commercial Court. This title gives you unique access to expert direction on bringing a case before the court and is an in-depth assessment of how proceedings are conducted and controlled by the Commercial Court Judge. Publication date: December 2012	Stephen Dowling
The Companies Act 2014: Annotated and Consolidated, 2018 Edition	Company Law	The Companies Act 2014 - 2018 edition: Annotated and Consolidated is the essential annotated reference to the legislation and the successor to the Combined Companies Acts, first published by Crowe in 1989 under the firm's former name, Bastow Charleton. This 2018 edition has been fully updated to include additional pieces of legislation now incorporated into the Act. Publication date: June 2018	Brian Conroy
The Criminal Process, 1st Edition	Criminal Law	This title informs practitioners on all aspects of Criminal Process and includes the relevant provisions of the Criminal Justice Acts 2006-2007 and the new Guidelines for Prosecutors. It also examines the emerging law on issues like bail, delay, the duty to preserve evidence, and the role of judicial review in the criminal process. It focuses on the key issues that have occupied the courts in recent years such as pre-trial remedies, delay, adverse publicity, and the duty to preserve evidence. While principally focusing on Irish and European law, The Criminal Process has a strong comparative dimension and it draws extensively on British, American, and Commonwealth materials. Publication date: December 2009	Thomas O'Malley
The Law of Company Insolvency, 3rd Edition	Company Law	This is an up to date and comprehensive account of all aspects of present Company Insolvency Law, taking full account of the changes made by the Companies Act, 2014. It provides invaluable guidance to all parties concerned with businesses in financial difficulties, be they modestly sized enterprises, mega-corporations, or indeed banks and insurers. It is a thorough statement of the law regarding company insolvency and related aspects of receiverships, examinerships, and the winding up/liquidation of companies. Publication date: December 2015	Michael Forde, Hugh Kennedy, and Daniel Simms

TITLE	PRACTICE AREA	DESCRIPTION	AUTHOR(S)
The Law of Credit and Security, 2nd Edition	Banking and Financial Services Law	The new edition of the Law of Credit and Security provides a fully up-to-date analysis of all relevant aspects of law and regulation in respect of lending, security-taking and enforcement of loans in Ireland. In the ongoing aftermath of the financial crisis, this has remained one of the most fast-moving areas of law and this book provides a comprehensive treatment of the many developments since the publication of the first edition in 2011. Publication date: October 2015	Mary Donnelly
The Law of Local Government, 1st Edition	Local Government	Now entering its second edition, The Law of Local Government provides a comprehensive and definitive analysis of the law on local government, including the substantive and procedural provisions which are relevant for the application of law on local government and local authority legislative provisions. Publication date: December 2020	David Browne
The Law of Personal Injuries, 2nd Edition	The Law of Damages	Covering all areas of personal injuries law legislatively, procedurally, and jurisprudentially, this book provides a detailed and comprehensive review of the law and procedures and is written in a direct and accessible manner with legal practitioners in mind. This book utilises jurisprudence and concentrates on recent developments in case-law to exemplify the legal issues involved in the various types of personal injuries actions which may be encountered by a practitioner. It analyses and illustrates the legislative changes which have taken place in personal injuries. This book also effectively summarises and explains all the procedural elements relating to personal injuries actions and any dealings with the Injuries Board, in conjunction with an analysis of the legal rules and procedures, which arise at each stage of the personal injuries litigation process. Publication date: August 2016	Colin Jennings, Barry Scannell, and Dermot Francis Sheehan
Walsh on Criminal Procedure, 2nd Edition	Criminal Law	Walsh on Criminal Procedure is a comprehensive treatment of all aspects of criminal procedure from police powers of investigation right through to post-sentencing processes. The second edition responds to recent developments by offering a comprehensive, expert, and accessible analysis of all aspects of Irish criminal procedure. A consistent theme throughout is an emphasis on comprehensive detail and clarity with the needs of both prosecution and defence in mind. Publication date: November 2016	Dermot P.J. Walsh

Explore Westlaw IE

➤ Request your free trial or contact us at 0345-600-9355.

About Thomson Reuters

Thomson Reuters is a leading provider of business information services. Our products include highly specialised information-enabled software and tools for legal, tax, accounting, and compliance professionals combined with the world's most global news service – Reuters. For more information on Thomson Reuters, visit tr.com and for the latest world news, reuters.com.