Important points for the Broker houses are indicated with distinct colors:

Yes - Appears on the document and captured by OCR

N/A - Does not appear on the document.

No - Information available on document BUT not captured by OCR.

 Brokerage houses with Blue color:

- 1) When binder qualifies for 'Detail transactions without 8949 option', OCR will capture all the information related to Schedule D transactions from the document.
- 2) When binder qualifies for 'Summary transactions without 8949 option', 'Summary transactions with 8949 option' and 'Detail transactions with 8949 option', OCR will capture DETAIL information of only Proceeds, Cost, Term code (If applicable) and Form 8949 type from the document.

 Brokerage house with Salmon color:

- 1) When binder qualifies for Summary transactions, OCR will capture all the information related to covered/non-covered from the 1099-B summary and NOT from the Realized gain/loss statement summary. This is because the realized gain/loss schedule does not provide summary information of covered/non-covered transactions.
- 2) When binder qualifies for Detail transactions, OCR will capture all the information related to covered/non-covered from its respective schedules i.e., 1099-B details from 1099-B statement and Realized gain/loss detail from realized gain/loss statement.

 Brokerage houses with Dark Gray color:

OCR captures data from both Form 1099-B and Realized Gain/Loss statements, however information from the statements that are highlighted in the Dark Gray color will be exported to the tax software.
