

Summer internships at Reuters HANDS-ON JOURNALISM EXPERIENCE

Reuters offers talented students and graduates with a strong interest in journalism an opportunity to learn at the world's largest international multimedia news agency. Interns will work in a fast-paced newsroom with some of our most experienced journalists.

THE LOCATIONS

Internships will be available in New York City, Washington, D.C. and Mexico City. Other possible locations include Sao Paulo, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

THE JOB

The paid internships are a crash course in hands-on business, political and general news reporting.

Interns will receive formal training before they start work. Every intern will report to a senior editor and be assigned a journalist mentor who will provide advice and guidance. Interns are expected to write regularly and deliver in-depth stories during their assignment.

Interns who excel may be considered for other opportunities, including entry-level reporting roles..

THE CANDIDATE

- You have journalism experience.
- You're passionate about news and are a quick learner.
- You have a strong background in journalism, economics, business, law, accounting, languages or computer science.
- You are fluent in English and possess excellent writing and communication skills. Additional languages are an asset.
- You have good mathematics and data skills.

\ Applicants must have the legal right to work in the location to which they apply. The program does not cover relocation, housing or visa costs.*

“My time as a Reuters intern was invaluable. I was given all of the responsibility and respect of any other news team member. They sent me to Iowa to cover two Hillary Clinton events and weeks later I was dispatched to Charleston to cover the church shooting. These experiences taught me infinitely more than a lifetime of other internships ever could, and I wouldn't trade my time here for the world.”
