Most Comprehensive and Accurate Content

Westlaw China's Chinese online legal database contains comprehensive laws, regulations, cases and carefully selected model contracts and legal journals. Westlaw China offers Legal Topics and Case Headnote with Key Number system, thorough professional analysis and highly integration of laws and cases. Every day, our editors review hundreds of sources and summarize the information into current awareness covering the practice areas of legal professionals who specialize in Chinese laws. Westlaw China Alert, which is a service tailored for subscribers' personalized needs, updates them on a daily basis with the news carefully selected and prepared by our editors. The Practice Areas of Westlaw China integrate essential legal information on important practice areas and index them with the Key Number System for easy navigation. It empowers efficient legal research by organizing legislations, regulations, leading cases, model contracts, articles and current awareness into a coherent system of legal issues. In addition, the database of Articles offers very practical perspectives on the understanding and application of law; and the Legal Glossary is crafted by experienced legal editors and translators and is a useful bilingual reference guide for legal terms in Chinese laws and regulations. With the one-stop service for access to the latest legal and business news provided by Westlaw China, users can obtain necessary information conveniently and quickly.

Comprehensive Collection of Laws and Cases

Westlaw China Chinese online legal database provides more than 960,000 laws and regulations promulgated by Chinese government agencies at the central, provincial, municipality and autonomous region levels since 1949. The database also contains more than 1,500,000 cases sourced from the Supreme People's Court and local courts in 31 provinces, municipalities directly under the Central Government and autonomous regions, as well as special courts such as maritime courts.

Westlaw China adds "Cause of Action" as a new classification criterion in the Case database. You can search and browse for judgments by either Court or Cause of Action, depending on your specific needs. The Selected Cases collection covers must-read judgments recommended by Westlaw China's editors. Legal issues are fully analyzed in these judgments. By reading these judgments, you can have a full and in-depth understanding of application of the law and key legal issues in the judgments.

Case Headnotes

Case headnotes are compiled by our experienced legal editors through thorough analysis of judgment documents. They can help users analyze the key legal issues reflected in these judgments. Case headnotes are organized according to the structure of legal issues.

Currently, they cover legal areas such as Anti-unfair Competition, Arbitration, Civil Law, Civil Procedure, Copyright, Trademark. These case headnotes and the corresponding judgment documents will help users save time in understanding important judgments and the application of law.

Exact Match And Broad Match Search Results

Westlaw China Chinese online legal database supports both Exact Match and Broad Match. Exact Match retrieves search results that exactly match the search term, which yields relatively concentrated and more pertinent results. Search results via Exact Match through "Time" or "Key Number" and using connectors except "&" are identical to those via Broad Match. Broad Match will first segment the search query and then retrieve search results that match the segmented search terms. Broad Match yields more search results because the segmentation will extend the search scope.

Relevancy-Based Search Results

Legal topics integrate laws, regulations, and cases under the same legal issue. Within these legal topics, "Smart Links" and the "Key Number System" help users find relevant legal information quickly.
