Answer ‘yes’ to any of these questions and you owe it to yourself and your partners to learn more about how we can help your business. Thomson Reuters has the broadest solution for private equity and venture capital firms of any information provider in the marketplace. Its data and analytical tools began as VentureXpert, one of the most trusted brands in the market. Now on the ThomsonONE.com platform, our expanded private equity solution gives you the intelligence you need – when and how you need it.

ThomsonONE.com Private Equity provides fast access to the very latest data and analysis and is tailored specifically for the private equity professional – helping you to sharpen your investment decisions, improve your internal workflow and keep you on top of market activity. It features:

- An Investments Overview as your home page, allowing you to quickly review recent private equity investments and other key data
- One-click access to Companies & Investors, Fundraising and Deals & Valuations
- The Private Equity Excel® Add-In, enabling you to access Thomson Reuters Private Equity Fundraising and Investment content directly in Excel and to build customized reports that update automatically as you change criteria
- Volatility Analysis reports, allowing you to analyze the risk exposure of your private equity investments with reporting by either Primary Market or Fund Stage
- The Partners Group Thomson Reuters Private Real Estate Index – a unique dataset in the market that provides a comprehensive summary of fund performance benchmarks for real estate investment performance measurement

And, through the ThomsonONE.com platform, we offer a suite of add-on modules to enhance your due diligence efforts and support your investment hypotheses. Take a quick look at our reference chart below. Which modules are right for you?

THE PRIVATE EQUITY EXCEL® ADD-IN

The Private Equity Excel Add-In – available as part of ThomsonONE.com Private Equity and the Private Equity module of ThomsonONE.com Investment Banking – enables you to access our Private Equity Fundraising and Investment content directly in Excel and then:

• Build customized views and reports that update automatically as you change criteria
• Analyze fundraisings and fund sizes across different locations and time periods and drill down to see the details
• View equity invested by country and industry class
• Apply filters to build customized views of the data
• Use pivot tables to update pre-defined or create customized reports
• Perform analysis directly in Excel
• Link multiple reports and update them simultaneously

Powered by the industry-leading database VentureXpert, this module provides the critical information and functionality you need to manage your funds, and structure deals and exit strategies.

GET THE STORIES BEHIND THE DEALS WITH THE NEW PRIVATE MARKETS PLATFORM

Thomson Reuters Private Markets gives you access to all the intelligence, data and analysis from the editors of Buyouts magazine, Venture Capital Journal and peHUB, all on one convenient platform.

On Private Markets you'll find breaking news, industry research and trend analysis, as well as the deepest content archive available anywhere – over 100,000 private equity and venture capital articles dating back more than 20 years.

Customers also receive access to the last 3 years worth of M&A data from SDC, the world's leading deals database. Search for Announced, Completed, On The Block and Withdrawn deals, or simply search by keyword. Filter by Country, Region, Sector, Time Period and Min/Max Values and save your searches for easy access when you re-visit.

• Established in 1961, Venture Capital Journal is an indispensable source of intelligence for the venture capital community in the US and throughout Europe.
• For nearly 25 years, Buyouts has provided readers with comprehensive deal and fund news, personality profiles, expert analysis and a wealth of proprietary data for the private equity market.

Get access to them both at http://privatemarkets.thomsonreuters.com

CONNECT WITH SENIOR EXECUTIVES AT THE PRIVATE EQUITY INDUSTRY’S TOP NETWORKING CONFERENCES

Thomson Reuters produces a series of events each year designed to help general partners connect with investors, bankers, lenders and other professionals that help them with their business. Industry leaders fill our panel discussions and keynote interviews, providing war stories and useful tips on how to manage their partnerships, raise funds and get deals done. Recent speakers include Henry Kravis, Bennett J. Goodman, and Alan Patricof, and events are held across the country in New York, Chicago, Dallas and San Francisco.

Networking is a core function of our events, and the ExecConnect Private Networking Program has been a popular feature for the last five years. Providing structured networking for participants, ExecConnect is a series of 20-minute, one-on-one private meetings, based on mutual investment goals, creating unprecedented opportunities to get deals done and funds raised.
