Manager Approval Request Letter

Version 1

Dear [Manager's Name],

I'm seeking approval to attend the Corporates SYNERGY Conference in Orlando, November 2026, hosted by Thomson Reuters. Early bird registration is currently available at $2,295 (regular pricing will be $2,695), plus hotel accommodations and airfare.

SYNERGY is designed for corporate legal, risk, tax, and trade professionals looking to harness technology and innovation to drive business strategy and success. The sessions, panels, and roundtables will provide insights into the latest advancements in products such as ONESOURCE Indirect Tax, CoCounsel Legal, CoCounsel Tax, Practical Law, Legal Tracker, CLEAR, and more. Networking with peers and industry experts will help strengthen our external relationships and support organizational growth.

Interactive training sessions will share how other organizations are leveraging AI-driven solutions and cutting-edge technology to enhance workflows and improve business outcomes. I have no doubt I'll return with key takeaways and actionable recommendations for our leadership team to ensure our organization continues to lead in operational efficiency and innovation.

Thank you for considering this request.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

Manager approval request letter

Version 2

Dear [Manager's Name],

I am seeking approval to attend the Corporates SYNERGY Conference in Orlando, November 2026, hosted by Thomson Reuters. The total estimated investment includes early bird registration at $2,295 (regular pricing will be $2,695), plus hotel accommodation and travel expenses. I recommend securing registration at the early bird rate to maximize cost savings.

About the conference:

SYNERGY is designed for corporate legal, risk, tax, and trade professionals eager to harness technology and innovation to drive business strategy and success. The conference will condense months of learning into knowledge-packed days, providing insights into over 200 sessions covering product strategy, product training, and thought leadership.

Benefits of attending:

- Gaining strategic technology insights & shaping organizational strategy: SYNERGY provides exclusive access to the latest advancements in critical corporate tools including ONESOURCE, Checkpoint, Legal Tracker, HighQ, CLEAR, and Practical Law. These insights will inform our organization's digital transformation strategy and help us maintain our competitive edge in an evolving business landscape.
- Building high-value connections and industry partnerships: Networking events and collaborative discussions offer opportunities to engage with corporate peers, Thomson Reuters experts, and industry thought leaders. These connections are invaluable for benchmarking, knowledge-sharing, and exploring innovative solutions that can advance our operational efficiency.
- Advancing AI proficiency and operational innovation: Interactive training sessions and hands-on workshops will provide fresh perspective on how other corporate departments are employing AI-driven solutions for business transformation. By learning from real-world applications and proven strategies, we can accelerate our own adoption and avoid common implementation pitfalls.
- Professional development and workflow optimization: The conference will offer opportunities to discover innovative ways to enhance our existing workflows with cutting-edge technology, directly supporting our department's strategic objectives and professional growth initiatives.

Thank you for considering this request. Ultimately, participation will strengthen our operational capabilities, help us identify cost reduction opportunities, and reinforce our commitment to innovation in corporate legal, risk, tax, and trade management.

Best regards,
