

SUMMARY

PIPELINEPLUS is a relationship management system for the busy professional. It prioritizes your most important relationships and provides recommendations on how to close new business.

Built-in tutorials provide business development best practices so you always know what to do next. And our monthly Focus sessions provide a live forum for engagement and adoption.

PIPELINEPLUS integrates with your Outlook calendar and your CRM. Use it as a standalone tool or as a CRM power app to boost user adoption.

A SIMPLE BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT PLATFORM

Easy to adopt, powerful features

PIPELINE

Prioritize Your Relationships

Our intuitive prioritization system is easy to manage and helps you focus on the people you need to contact.

INSIGHTS

Pursue with Confidence

Built-in AI provides concrete recommendations, so you know exactly what steps to take to close new business.

VIEWER

Track Your Progress

Comprehensive dashboards track business development and sales performance and illuminate new avenues for growth. We can also customize your dashboard, so it pulls in data from other platforms, like CRM, experience management, proposal software, finance software, or spreadsheets.

TRAINER

Train Your Team

Business development e-learning tools provide the strategies and techniques business developers need to thrive in today's environment.

PIPELINEFOCUS

Engage your Users

The biggest hurdle in rolling out any software platform is adoption. Without it, you have another dormant tool. We address user adoption head-on with monthly Pipeline Focus sessions, facilitated by our faculty of seasoned MBAs, JDs, and business development executives. They engage your users every month, providing thought leadership and accountability that drives business development best practices and maximizes your results.

TESTIMONIALS

I used to use a static Excel spreadsheet to track my leads, then I discovered PIPELINEPLUS. It's much easier to use, sends me the reminders I need, and provides helpful insights to give my practice a business edge.

OMAR FRANCO

Office Managing Director,
Becker

We've seen a significant increase in billings from the lawyers who invested time and energy in PIPELINEPLUS. It delivered a 1,374% return on investment within our first year.

ALISON JANZEN

Director of Marketing & Business
Development, Torkin Manes LLP

The brilliance of PIPELINE is its simplicity – it is elegant and easy to navigate, yet powerful; it helps me keep my most important relationships top of mind. I wish I had discovered the software years ago.

WILLIAM O'NEIL

Partner,
Winston & Strawn

PIPELINEPLUS helps service professionals establish good habits and encourages business development activity. It easily pays for itself.

ALLISON PRINCE

Partner,
Goulston & Storrs

The adoption and impact have been much higher than the traditional CRM products we've used in the past. Our return on PIPELINEPLUS was five times greater than our investment.
